

Residence permit for purpose of business

1. Client sends the filled questionnaire and a scan of passport
2. PfDC Slovakia prepare and collect all the requested documents
 - + PfDC Slovakia
 - Arranging of the trade license (time of getting the trade license - up to 2 weeks)
 - OECD citizen has the obligation to pay contributions to health insurance immediately
 - non-OECD citizen has the obligation to pay contributions to health insurance from the day of approval of residence permit
 - + the social insurance contributions arise from July of the following year
 - Business address
 - Assisting with opening of the bank accounts in Slovakia (private bank account – min. 3300 €, business bank account – min. 5500 €) (possibility of having foreign bank accounts, but more strict rules regarding the form)
4. Client needs to also provide the documents below:
 - Apostilled or superlegalized and officially translated criminal record
 - from the country of origin + from the country where the applicant has stayed longer than 90 days for the last 3 years
 - The landlord confirmation for the address in Slovakia (PfDC can assist)

 In case of prolongation of residence permit for purpose of business it is necessary to achieve a profit of minimum 5,000 EUR netto/ per year*

A) Submitting of the application for D-VISA at the Embassy

1. Submit an application for national D-Visa for purpose of submission the application for residence permit in Slovakia
 - * Documents cannot be older than 60 days at the moment of submission and by arrival of the Client to Slovakia cannot be older than 90 days
 - * The approval process - 30 days
 - If the application for national D visa is not approved – submitting new application for national D-visa
 - * new documents required
 - If the application for national D-visa is approved – requested to come back to embassy to get the D-visa into the passport (approx. 7 days)

Possibility of travel to Slovakia - within 1,5 months from the moment of submission the application at the Embassy*
2. Submit the application for residence permit for the purpose of business in Slovakia (at the Foreign Police department)
 - * the approval process - within 90 days

B) Submitting of the application for residence permit at the Embassy

1. Submit an application for residence permit for the purpose of business at the Embassy
 - * 90 days validity of documents
 - * 4-6 weeks until the documents will be delivered from the Embassy to the Foreign Police in Slovakia
2. The application will be sent to Foreign Police in Slovakia
 - * The approval process - within 90 days from the moment of delivery the documents from the Embassy to Foreign Police
3. Once the residence permit is approved, Foreign Police will inform the Embassy, Client can ask for the D-visa at the Embassy (approx. 7 days)
 - * Possibility to travel to Slovakia and collect the residence permit card in Slovakia

Possibility of travel to Slovakia - within 4 months approx. from the moment of submission of the application at the Embassy*

